MANY SCHEDULED PLAY AND TRAINING FINISHING

A HUGE thank you to all the people who helped out with Beginner Lessons and the Beginner Socials this season. Under the direction of Pat Porter many people helped our beginners feel welcome at Mesa Regal and learn the sport. Thanks to Alison Pelletier, Fred Tintori, Leslie Walts, Vic Cissell, Judy Eagle, Jack Rafuse, Kathy Grieve, Mary & Ron Colwill and anyone else that took the time to help Pat out with the new players at Mesa Regal.

Thanks to Pat Porter and Bill Loran for 2.5 training sessions. It was great to see so many of our club members out there working on their game. 2.5 Training is now finished.

Last week for men's 3.5 & 3.75 play. Thanks so much to Lorne Johnson for organizing this competitive play for our guys!!!

Last week for 3.5 Interpark play. Thanks so much to Dale Hartman for organizing this.

Last week for Wednesday ladders. Thanks so much to Noella Johnson, Cindy Phillips and Doug Dodge for organizing this.

4.5 Interpark play is cancelled this Saturday due to Robson Ranch tournament.

LAST WEEK for cans. Thanks so much for drinking this year....ha ha.

MESA REGAL PICKLEBALL CLUB CLOTHING

Many of our members are looking quite sharp these days in their new clothing. Thanks to the committee of Loire Ranson, Sandy Keeble, Eileen Foster, Bev Pearce and Yogi Yoggerst for their excellent taste in clothing! We look forward to purchasing again in the fall....hopefully that Canadian dollar will be right back up there....ha ha.

COUNTRY FAIR DAY - MARCH 11

Wow, our pickleball entry in the parade was GREAT and we had a lot of fun showing the park how superb the fastest growing sport in North America is!! We had so many positive comments from the residents. Thanks to Karen Cox & Donita Houghton for carrying our horses and banner, Shirley Huff for carrying Jay's 'never miss' paddle, Char Porter, Nancy & Carol Casey for driving the golf carts, our decorated bike riders: Vic Cissell, Judy Eagle, Mickey Kelley, Dale Hartman and our musical biking clown, Kathy Grieve. And, not to forget the boys who carried the temporary net the whole way, Jake Grandy and Bob Hayes held the net for the female 'dinkers': Stella Rafuse, Brenda Bruntlett, Nancy Stern, Marlene Hayes, Kathy Morgan, Dorraine Spanier and our ball chaser Denise Bumby. All of us had a lot of fun representing our club in the parade!! Thanks to all of you!!

PICKLEBALL CLUB WIND UP SOCIAL

Another super social event for MRPBClub. A HUGE THANKS to Neil Ranson and Katie Hicks for organizing the day. Also, way to go and thanks to Lorie Ranson for getting us all that extra pizza!!! It was fun to get to 'dink around' with lots of different people and just enjoy the morning. Thanks to all of you who participated and came down to join in the socialization!

TOURNAMENT REPORT

Good luck to our club members who are heading to Robson Ranch this week for what is the last tournament of the season for many of us. If you feel like a drive to Casa Grande to cheer on our MRPBClub players, the tournament runs from Thursday to Saturday and you can check out the draws on www.pickleballtournaments.com.

FUN, FRIENDLY & FAIR PICKLEBALL

Thanks to all of you for having fun on the courts, being friendly to your partners and opponents and calling the lines in a fair way!!! We all love our pickleball!!!
